Were you enrolled as a guest student at Heinrich Heine University in the last semester?
Yes		No

Please note:

I am aware that my admission application is not linked to specific classes in the corresponding subject. Notwithstanding admission as a guest student, the corresponding lecturer is solely responsible for deciding whether participation in a class is permitted in each case. Accordingly, admission does not automatically entitle the guest student to participate in a specific class. Please therefore find out about the modalities of joining the classes you are interested in before submitting your application. Guest student status permits participation in classes; however, it is only possible to take exams in exceptional cases.

Please note:

Under the rules of the state accident insurance fund, regularly enrolled students have accident insurance cover during their education and training. All other groups of people (guest students/cross-registered students/auditing doctoral students) do not have accident insurance cover.

The following documents must be submitted with the application:

- Proof of payment of the guest student fee of 100 euros.
