My Erasmus exchange at Heinrich Heine Universität in Düsseldorf was an amazing experience. I had a great time living and studying in Germany.

The law courses at Heinrich Heine Universität were good. The lecturers were not only knowledgeable but also really approachable and helpful. The classes were interesting, and I learned a lot. The university itself had excellent facilities, and the library was a great place to study.

Living in Düsseldorf was a lot of fun. The city has a great mix of modern and traditional vibes, and there's always something to do. I loved exploring the Altstadt, walking along the Rhine River, and going out the local cafes and restaurants. Public transport was super efficient, making it easy to get around the city and explore other parts of Germany.

One of the best parts of my exchange was the cultural experiences. I got to attend some great events like carnival, visit museums, and try out local German food. Düsseldorf has a really international feel, and I met people from all over the world. It was nice to make new friends and learn about different cultures.

Overall, my time at Heinrich Heine Universität was unforgettable. The combination of great academics, a lively city, and cultural experiences made it a really rewarding exchange. I'm really glad I chose to study there and would highly recommend it to anyone thinking about an Erasmus exchange.
