I really enjoyed my experience at HHU, I attended the language courses and they were very interesting. The professors were very nice, easy-going and helped if there were any difficulties. The lessons were interactive and very useful for learning foreign languages. I was able to practise German a lot, which was the goal of my Erasmus. The teachers involved us, pushed us to talk, I was very happy.

I also got on well with the secretarial staff, they were all very nice and helped me with documentation.

The campus is very nice. Personally, I prefer the more modern buildings, like the economics building, because the other buildings are a bit older.

I also got on very well in the university library, I have always studied there and there is always plenty of space. I would only add a few sockets to charge the computer, unfortunately there weren't at all locations.

I really appreciated the convenience of having both cafeterias and several canteens available for breakfast and lunch. I always studied in the central library and it was very convenient to have the Ex Libris cafeteria for breaks from studying.

I found the bookable private rooms very useful when I needed to study completely alone and concentrate more, I always went there.

The OASE library was also very nice, the building was more modern and very bright.

Overall, I can describe my experience at HHU as very positive.
