I chose to do my Erasmus at HHU because of the courses offered by the university. After one semester, I regret nothing: the courses are excellent, the content is very interesting and the teachers are knowledgeable. I do not need to know the German language to spend my Erasmus in Düsseldorf thanks to this university that gives students a large choice of courses in English. Some of the courses I attended had less than ten students and others had over two hundred. The teachers know how to adapt their lesson to the number of students which made their subjects even more interesting.

I liked a lot the campus of the university; its beauty struck me when I first saw it. I did not know that a campus could have so much greenery. It is also much larger than the university campus of my country of origin: I needed a map the first few weeks to find my classroom and not get lost. I liked the fact that there are multiple libraries at different places in the campus, so it is always possible to find a calm place to study. The libraries let you borrow books and print.

There was one building that I was pleased to discover: the Student Service Center. I could go to this place and receive advices when I needed help on any university-related subject. It was very helpful and I regret not having a place like this in my home university.

I loved having a student card that could be used to pay at the university restaurant and that was also a public transport pass. I was able to take some trains to visit other cities without having to pay for a ticket with this card. I would not have traveled as much as I did if I had to pay for train tickets.
